Year In Review: What You Should Know About Orion

Orion will carry intrepid explorers on bold, new missions into deep space – and eventually, Mars. But before NASA can take the Next Giant Leap and send astronauts to the Red Planet, there’s much work to be done right here on Earth.

2016 was an intense year, with a flurry of activity throughout every corner of the Orion program. Across the country, NASA, Lockheed Martin, hundreds of suppliers and small businesses have been simultaneously designing, building and testing four different spacecraft.

EFT-1: Propulsion components flown on Orion during Exploration Flight Test-1 (EFT-1), a high-orbital test flight in 2014, have been removed from the crew module for testing in extreme environments.

“We’re identifying opportunities to reuse parts flown on the interior of the spacecraft to lower overall costs,” said Jim Bray, Lockheed Martin Orion crew module director. “Extreme testing of used parts will help us determine what we’d consider safe to reuse and fly on crewed flights.”

Once engineers completed the removal of all necessary parts, the EFT-1 crew module was relocated to NASA’s Kennedy Space Center Visitor Center for millions of people to see.

EM-1: The pressure vessel for Orion’s first integrated flight with the Space Launch System, Exploration Mission-1, is currently inside a clean room at the Operations & Checkout (O&C) Facility in Florida. Teams are outfitting the structure with fluid systems for propulsion and

President’s Message
By Dave Hayworth

Well, here we are with cold season upon us. For our colds, if you are not feeling sympathetic for each other due to not taking precautions to avoid colds, try to appear as if you are—and keep your sense of humor.

We had a good crowd for our 2016 Awards and 2017 Installations of Officers Luncheon at the Elks Club on January 18th. I used this occasion also to recognize members who go above and beyond in support and dedication to REALM. Tom Goslin administered the oath of office to the incoming Board. Thank you again for all the support we continuously receive especially all of you that come to our luncheons for good food and fellowship. Check our schedule for future activities.

There are two open positions on the Board: 1st Vice President and Assistant Treasurer. I encourage someone to fill these positions. If you are interested, please let me know.

I asked Fred Curtis to write-up an article explaining what REALM is all about. We have for sometime now, tried to get information regarding REALM into the future Retiree packages at Lockheed Martin. With the help of Jon Rambeau and his outstanding staff, we are submitting to Human Resource this article with a REALM application. Thank You, Mr. Rambeau and staff. We hope this will encourage and promote interest in REALM.

Lynn and I attended the LMMC 59th Annual Dinner Dance at the Hyatt Regency on 28 January. What a First Class, increditable function. Approximately 300 attendees. Guess what?? Lots of young faces (maybe I am just getting old). Believe me, been gone longer than I thought.

You will receive this after “Valentine’s Day” - - hope you treated your sweetheart special!

New Members

Do you know a retiree who hasn’t joined REALM? Perhaps you know of one or two who forgot to renew their memberships? If so, please point them to the REALM website below so they can download the application and join our fun activities like Group Travel, Lunch Bunches, Volunteer opportunities at the Science Center, and many more.

environmental controls. Once those systems are fully integrated and tested, teams will install electronic systems like avionics, wiring and computers.

STA: The Structural Test Article (STA) is a ground test article used to prove Orion’s design against extreme temperatures and flight loads.

“Nothing can fly a crew in space without first being tested to its limits,” said Bray. “Qualification tests put Orion through very severe flight conditions and help us confirm the design’s margin of safety.”

The STA is currently being built inside the O&C.

EM-2: The Orion team is also stocking the shelves with hardware needed for Exploration Mission-2, Orion’s first crewed flight. The Avionics, Power and Wiring team has already received mission components, and test hardware for the Environmental Control and Life Support System designs are due to begin ground based testing in early 2017.

Look Ahead

What’s to come in 2017, you ask? Be on the lookout for some exciting milestones next year:

The structural test article will undergo proof testing at the O&C in Florida before its shipment to Lockheed Martin’s Colorado facility for mechanical testing.

In order to verify the spacecraft can route power and send commands, the team will power on the EM-1 crew module and the crew module adapter for the first time.

The EM-1 European service module will arrive at the O&C and be mated to the crew module.

The integrated EM-1 service module and crew module stack will undergo integration testing and power on.

The Environmental Control and Life Support System will undergo ground based development testing at Johnson Space Flight Center.

Construction of the EM-2 structure will begin in Louisiana.

NASA and Lockheed Martin are approaching the end of Orion’s development phase, having successfully tackled many of the toughest engineering challenges associated with human exploration of deep space. As the team enters 2017, they remain on track for Exploration Mission-1 in 2018 and Exploration Mission-2, the first crewed flight, as early as 2021.
January 2017 Bridge Results

By Ila Clontz and Marvin Christiansen

January 6th 2017 found 16 happy bridge players returning after a long Christmas/New Year’s holiday. John Lampe wore two Bridge Olympic Medals for the High Average for the Quarter ending December 2016 and the High Average for the Year 2016. I believe it is safe to say that John is an excellent player as are many of our other dedicated players. Bob Fiebrandt was high for this day with 6660 and Ruth Courney second high with 6345.

Friday the 13th we again had four tables, so from that turnout, I don’t believe anyone was superstitious about the day. In fact, cards seemed to be pretty good for Dean Cherry since he ended up with the high for the day of 6300 and Winnie Suarez was second high with a score of 5890. I didn’t hear of any slams, but with such good scores there must have been some rubbers made. Norma Christiansen brought in her usual delightful treats of home baked goods for the group to enjoy.

On the 20th we had one of the group missing but we are good to adapt to all situations. Everyone seems to enjoy playing so whatever it takes we adjust. There seemed to be a lot of low scores and a lot of us wanted to take credit for the lowest. The high score for the day was Alan Courney with 6828; this was also the highest score for January. The second high for the day was Ralph Staschke with 6738. It was Nan Staschke’s birthday so they brought some very delicious donuts for all to enjoy. We thanked her by singing the birthday song, possibly a little off key.

The last bridge day of the month, the 27th, I was absent with company from the Midwest. The Courneys filled me in on the day. There were again four tables played and no slams to report. Clarice Drexler came by briefly to say Hello to everyone. Unfortunately she lives too far to play on any regular basis, but always happy to have her join us when she can. The high for the day was Kitty Price with 6705 and Dean Cherry second high with 5647. It sounds like they had some good cards. Ward Gidick brought Publix carrot cakes to enjoy. I’m not sure if he was celebrating anything special other than good health to be able to share in the day.

January 2017 Golf Results

By Dick McCoy

We continued to have great golf weather throughout the month of January. We started the year at Wekiva on January 11th, so we only had 3 weeks of play this month.

Wekiva – January 11th - We had a great overall turnout of 92 players to start the new year at Wekiva. Roy Lewis captured a 3rd place finish. Tom Simmonds, Fred Dittmaier, and Mike Smith each won a skin.

West Orange – January 18th - Again, we had a great turnout of 88 players. However, the LMC group didn’t do so well. Mike Smith was our only award winner with a single skin.

Monarch – January 25th - The turnout at Monarch was down to 66 players. The course had a cap on the number of players that could play. Frank Walker came through with a 3rd place finish for the LMC group.

Retirees can still join fellow retiree golfers although the REALM golf group disbanded several years ago. Many retirees and other non-Lockheed Martin golfers have a weekly golf outing on Wednesdays in a group called Dusty’s Duffers. The Duffers have been in existence for more than 20 years and have had many LMC retirees as members. The Duffers have approximately 150 members and typically 70 to 100 members play each week. The Duffers play golf courses all over central Florida and usually pay less than $30 per round which includes free range balls. There is also an end-of-the-year tournament that includes a modified team-scramble, a free meal with door prizes and money awards for the lowest team scores.

Dusty’s Duffers started a “Hole-In-One” pot in 2015. The $5 contribution from each paid member is included in the annual dues. Payoff is $1 for each paid member at the time of the hole-in-one. At the end of year tournament any remaining funds in the “Hole in One” pot will be added to the prize money for the tournament.

Bob
At the January Officers Installation luncheon Anne Hurlock-Kelly presented a photo of the famed Martin Company P5M-1 seaplane that was in excellent condition. This plane was built during WWII and served as a U.S. Navy submarine patrol aircraft.

I was contacted by Kathleen McDonald, a longtime friend of retiree Karen Tabory, regarding several memorabilia items Karen wished to donate. Kathleen and I met at the museum parking lot next to the Orlando Science Center to make the exchange. Karen was a longtime employee of the Publications Department at the Sand Lake plant and worked as an illustrator.

She presented 15 articles excerpted from The Eagle newsletters of the mid 1980’s related to various company products. There were also 19 posters of various sizes covering company products such as Orlando’s TADS/PNVS, Copperhead, LANTIRN, Pathfinder, Pershing II, FAAD LOS-F-H and Tornado. There were Family Day posters, Desert Storm and posters for Michaud & Denver products including the U.S. Space Station and several Viking Lander posters.

Karen’s other items included a newsletter clipping photo showing her and the other women of the Publications department illustration group, and an article with photo describing the Martin Marietta Orlando project to provide recruiting illustrations for

The U.S. Army. These various recruiting scenes were displayed on the sides of U.S. Postal Service mail trucks for several years, as well as other venues. Another very interesting donation was her personal box of illustrator’s tools including pencils, erasers, templates, triangles, French curves, tape, etc.

Thanks to Anne and Karen for their generous donations and to Kathleen for her effort to get Karen’s items to me.

REALM members are reminded that they can view the entire inventory of Memorabilia items by visiting the club website at realm-fl.org. There are presently 1700 listings in the file, covering products, people, events and places.

The Duffers have four handicap groupings and each group has cash prizes for the lowest three net scores. There is also an optional skin contest for each grouping. A skin won means the player had the lowest score within his handicap group on a given hole after taking into account his handicap.

For those who cannot play on Wednesdays, there is also a group that plays on Mondays.

If you are interested in learning more about the Duffers, please contact Mike Smith at dsmith7765@cfl.rr.com, 407-496-7443, to receive the user name and password to access the web site at http://www.dustysduffers.com. The website lists the schedule of courses to be played for the current year and also has a membership form. There is a $30 membership fee that is used to offset the cost of the year end party, “Hole in One” initial prize money, and to cover operational costs.

Lunch at Shiloh’s and Jesus Christ Superstar at the Titusville Playhouse - April 22, 2017

Andrew Lloyd Webber partnered with lyricist Tim Rice to create this dazzling pop opera. Based on the New Testament’s account of the last days of Jesus, this unique opus underscores intense drama with exciting and electric melodies. As Jesus’ radical teachings are evermore embraced, Judas increasingly questions the enlightened motives of his new prophet, resulting in betrayal. Christ’s final days are dramatized with emotional intensity, thought-provoking edge and explosive theatricality. Propelled by a driving score, Jesus Christ Superstar illuminates the transcendent power of the human spirit with a passion that goes straight to the heart.

REALM Annual Renewal

Now is the time to pay dues for next year.
Membership runs from January 31 to January 31. If your mailing label has 2016 after your name, you are NOT paid through 2017. So, make out that check now to ensure you continue receiving REALM News. You can pay for up to three years at a time.

Dues: $7.50 per year, payable to “REALM”.

You may pay for two or three years by multiplying $7.50 by the number of years you would like to pay.

If there are any changes to your contact info, including email address, please make a note!

DON'T LOSE YOUR NEWSLETTER!!

If you change your address, we pay the post office to notify us. If your Newsletter copy is not deliverable because you forget to renew, we can lose our only means of communicating with you.

We can use old mailing lists to try and contact you, and we have done this, but many have relocated and we have great difficulty re-establishing contact. Personal privacy rules prevent us from accessing any retiree information, so we are stymied unless YOU take action.

So please follow the easy instructions to the right. Look at your mailing label, which has your membership information as we know it and which provides us with a key to your phone numbers, email address, etc. Make your check payable to REALM, and mail it to our Treasurer, Joe Lung. Receiving your renewal sets a system in motion on our end, and if somehow the system fails you, we will be honored to receive your screams of complaint, and will contritely fix the problem. As a retiree, you were a member of one of the best teams in our business in the world, and we don't want to lose that link.
